

Section 217, and to be designated as Section 217-A and 217-B, as the same was amended by Chapter 156 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1908.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That 217-B of Chapter 142 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "An Act to repeal and re-enact with amendments, Section 217 of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub-title "Wild Fowl," and to add two new sections to said Article to follow Section 217 and to be designated as Sections 217-A and 217-B, as the same was amended by Chapter 156 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1908, so as to read as follows:

SEC. 217-B. It shall be unlawful to shoot at or shoot wild fowl in or over the waters of Kent County except from the shore and natural islands, except it shall be lawful for the citizens of Kent County on Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays of every week during the open season, to shoot at or shoot wild fowl in Comegy's Bight, a tributary of the Chester River in Kent County, from the stick blind, not to be erected at a greater distance than four hundred yards from the shore, and to shoot at or to shoot wild fowl in said Comegy's Bight from a boat or float placed in any such stick blind, and it shall be unlawful to erect any such stick blind within four hundred yards of one already erected in accordance with the provisions of this section except in such cases where it may be necessary to chase and shoot any such wild fowl which have been previously shot and crippled from a shore or island, or stick blinds erected in Comegy's Bight, and it shall also be unlawful for any one to hunt or shoot at any wild fowl, otters, muskrats, or any other water animals by the use of any light of any character in any one of the waters of Kent County, except it shall be lawful for the citizens of Kent County, over the waters of Chester River and its tributaries in the jurisdiction of Kent County, above the line drawn from Molton's Point to Booker's Wharf, to shoot at or shoot muskrats by the use of a light, and it shall be unlawful to shoot or shoot at wild fowl over the waters of Chester River and its tributaries in the jurisdiction of Kent County, above a line drawn from Cliff City to Spaniard's Point, except on Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays of every week during the open season; and, provided, further, that it shall be lawful for any resident of Kent County to shoot at or shoot any wild fowl from a sink box and float blind on Chester River between
