

SEC. (4) And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said County shall levy from year to year on the assessable property of said County such sum of money as shall in their discretion be deemed necessary for the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds.

SEC. (5) And be it enacted, That all sums levied on account of the principal of said bonds shall be collected by the County Treasurer of Calvert County, or other officer or officers who may be authorized by law to collect the State tax in said County, or if there should be at any time no State tax levied by law, then in that case by such County Treasurer, Collector or other officer or officers as may be by law authorized to collect the County taxes in said County, and shall be subject to the order of the County Commissioners of Calvert County when collected, and shall be by said County Commissioners deposited in some savings bank or trust company to meet the interest upon said bonds, and to create a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds at maturity, and a statement of the condition of said sinking fund to be certified to by the President and Secretary of the savings bank or trust company where said sinking funds are deposited, shall be published each year during the first week in January in the papers doing the County printing; or the said County Commissioners may invest said sinking fund in the purchase of the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, or the stocks or bonds of this State, or of other States of the Union, or of the City of Baltimore, or of the counties or municipalities of this State, for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds at maturity, and the interest, income or dividends derived from such investments shall also be from time to time so invested by the County Commissioners, and the said sinking fund and the investment thereof shall be kept sacred and inviolate for the redemption of said bonds as they may mature; and any person or persons either as public officials or otherwise, who shall direct, or attempt to divert said sinking fund, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction shall be fined a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and confined in the County Jail for a term not exceeding one year.

SEC. (6) And be it enacted, That until the payment in full of the whole amount of the principal of said bonds, all dividends which may be declared by the said company upon the said stock so to be subscribed for, shall so long as the said stock shall continue to be owned by the County and held by the
