

and dollars, per annum, shall be used for any other purpose than for salaries and ordinary running expenses of said schools.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 26th, 1914.

---

CHAPTER 158.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments, Section 4 of Chapter 27 of the Acts of 1908, entitled "An Act to enable the qualified voters of Worcester County to determine at a special election to be held Saturday, March 21st, 1908, whether or not spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds, shall be sold in said County, and providing certain fines and penalties for the violation of the provisions of the same."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 4 of Chapter 27 of the Acts of 1908, entitled "An Act to enable the qualified voters of Worcester County to determine at a special election to be held Saturday, March 21, 1908, whether or not spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, alcoholic bitters or compounds, shall be sold in said County and providing certain fines and penalties for the violation of the provisions of the same," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

SEC. 4. That in any prosecution for violating the provisions of this Act it shall be sufficient to prove that the liquors disposed of did intoxicate or that they contained alcohol; that the possession of a United States Internal Revenue stamp for the business of dealing in liquors by a person or persons, firm, corporation or association alleged to be violating the provisions of this Act shall be prima facie evidence of guilt, and the testimony of two witnesses that they saw the name or names of the person or persons, firm, corporation or association in the records of the internal revenue office among the names of parties who have bought the internal revenue stamp for the business of dealing in liquors for the time covered by the indictment shall be conclusive evidence that the accused has or have in possession the internal revenue stamp for the business of dealing in liquor.