

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer in favor of Edward Davis, Manager of the Hotel Rennert, for the sum of two hundred and twenty-two dollars and seventy-five cents ($222.75), being the amount paid by the said Edward Davis, Manager of the Hotel Rennert, on the 22nd day of November, 1910, and which sum was included in the amount paid on the first of May, 1910, for the whole year for trader's license.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30th, 1914.

CHAPTER 201.

AN ACT to refund to Frank C. O'Brien, former proprietor of the Eutaw House, in Baltimore City, a sum of money paid for a license to be an ordinary keeper, the said Eutaw House having been destroyed by fire.

WHEREAS, Frank C. O'Brien obtained from the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, in Baltimore City, a license to be an ordinary keeper at the Eutaw House within said city, for the term of one year from May 1, 1912, for which license said Frank C. O'Brien paid to said Clerk the sum of Four Hundred and Fifty Dollars; and

WHEREAS, Said Eutaw House was destroyed by fire on May 25, 1912, after which time no use whatever was made by said Frank C. O'Brien of said license, and he ceased to be an ordinary keeper at said hotel after said date; and

WHEREAS, The Comptroller of the Treasury and the State Treasurer have recommended to the General Assembly of Maryland that a due proportion of said license fee for the term of its unused period be refunded to said Frank C. O'Brien; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer in favor of Frank C. O'Brien, former proprietor of the Eutaw House, for the sum of Four Hundred and Eight Dollars and Thirty-eight Cents ($408.38), being a due proportion of said license fee for a period during which said license was unused, to wit: eleven and one-sixth months.
