CHAPTER 212.

AN ACT to refund to W. H. Hooper & Co., Merchants, formerly trading in Cambridge, Maryland, a sum of money paid for a trader's license, their place of business having been destroyed by fire.

WHEREAS, W. H. Hooper & Co., obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, a trader's license to be used in the town of Cambridge, in said County, for the term of one year from May 1, 1910, for which license, the said W. H. Hooper & Co., paid the sum of fifty dollars; and,

WHEREAS, The building of the said W. H. Hooper & Co., in which they conducted their business, was destroyed by fire on July 30, 1910, after which time, no use whatever, was made by the said W. H. Hooper & Co. of said license, and the said firm of W. H. Hooper & Co., ceased to conduct said business under said license; and,

WHEREAS, The Comptroller of the Treasury and the State Treasurer have recommended to the General Assembly of Maryland that a due proportion of said license fee for the term unused period be refunded to said W. H. Hooper & Co.; therefore,
