

effective unless the same shall be submitted to the duly qualified voters of said town and ratified by a majority of those voting at any such election; provided that four weeks' notice shall be given by posting any such ordinance in at least six public places in said town before said election to be conducted by the Burgess and Council of said town or persons to be appointed by them for that purpose; provided further that any such ordinance may be voted on either at such special election or at the general election of said town; provided further that said election shall be held at such time and place and under such terms and conditions as shall be provided for by ordinance passed by the Burgess and Council of Myersville.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30th, 1914.

CHAPTER 221.

AN ACT to make appropriation for the annual salary of the Secretary of the Senate, and to define his duties.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Secretary of the Senate shall, during the recess of the Legislature, be at his office daily to receive and answer communications, covering legislative matters and to attend to such matters as may arise in connection with both House and Senate Records.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the salary of the Secretary of the Senate during the recess of the Legislature from September 30, 1914, to September 30, 1915, the annual sum of one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated; and to pay the salary of the Secretary of the Senate from October 1, 1915, to the first Wednesday in January, 1916, the sum of three hundred dollars is hereby appropriated; and to pay the Secretary of the Senate a per diem of ten dollars during the legislative session of 1916 the sum of nine hundred dollars is hereby appropriated; that to pay the Secretary of the Senate for copying and arranging the laws of the session of 1916 for publication, which work the Secretary of the Senate is to do jointly with the Chief Clerk of the House of Delegates, the sum of three hundred dollars is hereby appropriated; that the above sums are to be taken from any sums in the State Treasury not otherwise appro-