

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That all property and franchises of every kind belonging to, or in possession of the "Commissioners of Walkersville," are vested in the "Burgess and Commissioners of Walkersville;" and said corporation may receive in trust and control for any general corporate purpose of such trust, or for the benefit of said corporation, all monies and other property which may have been or shall hereafter be bestowed upon it by will, deed or any other form of gift or conveyance, in trust for any general corporate purposes, or in aid of the indigent poor, or for the general purpose of education, or for charitable purposes of any description, within said town.

SEC. 4. Be it enacted, That the corporate limits of the town of Walkersville, of Frederick County, Maryland, shall include all land lying within the following boundaries: Beginning at the bridge over the Glade Branch on the road leading from Walkersville to Bigg's Ford, on the Monocacy, and following said Glade Branch to a point one hundred feet northeast of the grounds of the canning factory now owned by Charles W. Ross and Charles B. Staley, partners trading as the Monocacy Valley Canning Co.; thence with a line parallel with the northeast line of the canning factory ground to the Northern Central Railroad, following said railroad to the road leading from Walkersville to the Glade Cemetery; thence with said road to the land heretofore owned by Nettie J. Atlee, and with the lines on the northeast of said Atlee's land to the public road; thence with a line through the lands of E. L. Cramer, to a gate on said land, on the Woodsboro and Frederick turnpike, thence with a line parallel with the northeast line of Susan Musser's lot, through the lands of Catherine Burrier, three hundred and sixty-three feet, more or less; thence to the southeast corner of Susan Musser's land; thence with the southwest line of Susan Musser, Samuel Smith, heirs of John Hoffman and the land of John Spurrier, thence through the lands of W. C. Hinea and the land heretofore owned by Saml. Ramsburg to the road leading from Walkersville to Mt. Pleasant; thence with said road to the southeast corner of Crawford heirs' lot; thence with the line of Crawford heirs and J. D. Nicodemus to the southwest corner of the land heretofore owned by R. A. Freshour; thence in a direct line parallel with the Woodsboro and Frederick turnpike, through the lands of J. D. Nicodemus and Nicodemus Brothers, to a point directly opposite of the southwest corner of the land heretofore owned by Lincoln G. Dinterman; thence with the line of the lot heretofore owned by L. C. Diterman and the land now or heretofore owned by