

missioners. The Burgess, by virtue of his office, shall be President of the Board of Commissioners and shall preside at all meetings of said Board, and said Board shall meet in said town on the first Monday in June succeeding their election, and at least once in each alternate month thereafter. A majority of the Board of Commissioners shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day. The Burgess may convene the Board of Commissioners whenever and as often as in his opinion the interests of the town require their deliberation; and whenever requested so to do by a majority of the Commissioners. Said Board shall determine upon and settle their rules of procedure. All ordinances and resolutions passed by the Board shall be signed by the Burgess and attested by the Clerk to the Board of Commissioners, and all meetings shall be open to the public.

SEC. 8. Be it enacted, That the Burgess shall at the first regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners, after their election, and annually thereafter, appoint, subject to confirmation by a majority of the Commissioners elected, a Treasurer, who may be one of their members, and said Treasurer may be required to give bond in such sum with such surety or sureties as the Board of Commissioners shall by ordinance prescribe.

SEC. 9. Be it enacted, That the Burgess shall at the first regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners, after their election, and annually thereafter, appoint, subject to confirmation by a majority of the Commissioners elected a clerk, who may be one of their members, and who may be also appointed Collector of Taxes, and they shall prescribe his duties and fix his salary. The clerk shall keep a book or record of the proceedings, resolutions and ordinances of said corporation which shall be open for the inspection of any person interested.

SEC. 10. Be it enacted, That the Burgess shall, at the first regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners, after their election, and annually thereafter, appoint, subject to confirmation by a majority of the Commissioners elected, a Bailiff, who, within the limits of said corporation, and within one-half mile beyond said limits, shall have all the police powers of constables and deputy sheriffs of the State of Maryland, and it shall be his duty to enforce the laws, by-laws and ordinances of said corporation and the laws of the State of Maryland relating to crimes and misdemeanors, committed within said boundaries. And the said Burgess and Commissioners, or any of them, shall have power to call upon any County constable, or
