

SEC. 34. Be it enacted, That all male citizens of Maryland, above the age of twenty-one years, who shall be citizens of the United States, and who shall have resided within the corporate limits of Walkersville for ninety days next preceding the election, possessing the qualifications now or hereafter provided for by law or ordinance, shall be entitled to vote at all elections hereafter held.

SEC. 35. Be it enacted, That all nominations for Burgess and Commissioners shall be made by the qualified voters of the town, on or before the first day of April, in each and every year, in which a Burgess and Commissioners are to be elected, or in which Commissioners, or a Burgess and one Commissioner are to be elected, at a town meeting to be held for that purpose, provided, that before said meeting is held two weeks' notice shall be given by posting printed notices, in at least four public places in said town, giving notice that said nominations will be held at the time and place specified in said notice, for the nomination of officers to be elected at the ensuing election; provided, however, that in the event there is not sufficient time between the passage of this Act and the holding of the first general election thereunder to give such notice and make such nominations thereunder within the time aforesaid, the Commissioners shall give such notice and call said public meeting at any time prior to the first Monday of May, as they shall think proper. At any time after the first general election held under this Act the Burgess and Commissioners may by ordinance provide for the method of making nominations and conducting elections and certifying returns thereof in a manner different from that herein provided.

SEC. 36. Be it enacted, That for the purpose of determining whether this Act shall become the charter of the town of Walkersville, said Act shall be submitted to the duly qualified voters of the corporation, at a special election to be held for that purpose, on the ninth day of April, A. D., 1914, between the hours of three and seven o'clock P. M., for their approval. In the event the Judges of Elections shall have been appointed prior to the passage of this Act, they shall act as judges of said special election, and also as judges of the general election to be held on the first Monday of May, A. D., 1914; and provided, further, that in the event there is sufficient time between the passage of this Act and the ninth day of April, A. D., 1914, the day on which said special election shall be held, two weeks' notice shall be given, by posting printed notices, in at least
