

four public places in said town, giving notice that said election will be held on the ninth day of April, A. D., 1914, within the hours aforesaid, and at the place specified in said notice, for the purpose of adopting or rejecting the new charter of Walkersville, and no other notice shall be required; but in the event two weeks' notice cannot be given between the time of the passage of this Act and the date of the election for the adoption or rejection thereof, then the Commissioners shall give such other notice of the time, place and purpose of the election as they shall think proper. The official ballot to be used at the special election shall be prepared by the Commissioners, and as near as practicable be in the same general form as ballots heretofore used in said town. Said ballots shall have printed upon them the words "For the Amended Charter," and "Against the Amended Charter." If at said election more votes are cast "For the Amended Charter" than "Against the Amended Charter," then in that event this Act shall become the Charter of the town of Walkersville, but if more or as many votes are cast "Against the Amended Charter," than "For the Amended Charter," then in that event this Act shall not become the Charter of the town of Walkersville. The special election herein provided for shall be conducted, the vote canvassed and the result declared in the same manner as in other elections. In the event no ordinance shall be passed prescribing the method of making nominations and holding elections, etc., provided for in this Act, the same method shall be followed in making nominations, preparing the ballot, conducting the election and making return thereof as has heretofore been the custom.

SEC. 37. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and that all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

Approved April 1st, 1914.
