

“Testamentary Law,” sub-title “Wills,” be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

SEC. 327. Every will or other testamentary instrument executed without this State in the mode prescribed by law, either of the place where executed or of the testator's domicile, or according to the forms required by the law of this State shall be deemed to be legally executed, and shall be of the same force and effect as if executed in the mode prescribed by the law of this State, provided, said last will and testament is in writing and subscribed by the testator; and if the testator was originally domiciled in Maryland, although at the time of making the will or at the time of his death he may be domiciled elsewhere, the said last will or testamentary instrument so executed shall be admitted to probate in any orphans' court of this State; and when so admitted shall be governed by and construed and interpreted according to the law of Maryland, without regard to the lex domicilii, unless the testator shall expressly declare a contrary intention in said will or testamentary instrument.

Approved April 1st, 1914.

CHAPTER 239.

AN ACT to provide for the filling of vacancies in any of the offices of the Town of Frostburg.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg may fill any and all vacancies occurring in any of the offices of said Town for the remainder of the term of office in which vacancy shall occur, if the vacancies shall be in the office of Mayor or Councilmen, those remaining in office shall fill said vacancy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if a tie vote shall result in any election the Mayor and Councilmen shall name one of the candidates, who shall be sworn into the office in which the said tie shall result.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with this Act is hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1st, 1914.