CHAPTER 243.

AN ACT to pay the claim of George Sack and Sons for material furnished in the construction of the addition to the school house at Hamilton, in Baltimore County, and to authorize the State Comptroller and the State Treasurer to deduct the same from any monies payable by the State of Maryland for school purposes to Baltimore County.

WHEREAS, George Sack and Sons furnished to R. E. Lee Bosley, the contractor for the erection of the addition to the school house at Hamilton, in Baltimore County, the materials required for said addition; that the amount of material furnished by them for the erection of said school house amounted to ten hundred and twelve dollars and ninety-one cents; and

WHEREAS, The only amount received on account of said material was a credit for sand of seventeen dollars and fifty cents, and from the receivers of the said R. E. Lee Bosley, twenty-six dollars and eleven cents, making in all forty-three dollars and sixty-one cents, leaving a cash balance still due and owing to said George Sack and Sons of nine hundred and sixty-nine dollars and thirty cents; and

WHEREAS, By Chapter 335 of the Acts of 1910 of the General Assembly of Maryland, the Board of School Commissioners were authorized to pay said claim of George Sack and Sons, but said Board of School Commissioners have refused to pay same; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer in favor of said George Sack and Sons for the sum
