

CHAPTER 253.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 80, Article 93 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Conveyance of Real Estate."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 80 of Article 93, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Conveyance of Real Estate," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

80. The Executor or administrator, including the administrator de bonis non, of a person who shall have made sale of real estate and have died before receiving the purchase money, or conveying the same, may convey such real estate to the purchaser; and where any decedent shall have made a sale or conveyance of any real or leasehold interest in lands or tenements and shall have conveyed the same by a deed, which deed is defective by reason of erroneous recitals, improper or erroneous description of the property sold and intended to be conveyed or is lacking in any matter of form or execution required by law or in the acknowledgment thereof, or for any other reason, the executor or administrator of such deceased person may execute and deliver a confirmatory deed of such property, and his deed shall be good and valid in law, and shall convey all the right, title, claim and interest of such deceased person in such real estate as effectually as the deed of such person so dying would have conveyed the same; and in the case of deeds defective as aforesaid the confirmatory deed of such executor or administrator shall be good and sufficient to convey all the right, title, claim and interest of said grantor, and shall bind all persons who would have been bound by the conveyance of such deceased person in the same manner that they would be bound had such defective deed been a good and sufficient deed to convey the real or leasehold estate intended to be conveyed thereby; provided the executor or administrator of the person so dying shall satisfy the Orphans' Court granting him administration that the purchaser had paid the full amount of the purchase money.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
