

1912, Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Orphans' Court," to be inserted after Section 235, and to be known as Section 235-A, and to read as follows:

SEC. 235-A. That from and after the passage of this Act no letters testamentary or of administration shall be issued to any person on the estate of any deceased person, except upon application, first made in writing, plainly and distinctly setting forth the name, age and last known place of residence of said deceased person, the date of and place of death, whether said decedent died leaving a husband, or wife, or child, or children, or other heirs at law surviving; together with the names, ages and place of residence of said husband, wife, child, children or other heirs at law, said application to be signed by the party applying for said letters, and who shall make oath to the truth of the statements contained in said application, to the best of their knowledge, information and belief. And be it further provided that this Section shall only apply to Cecil County.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1st, 1914.

CHAPTER 257.

AN ACT to enlarge and extend the corporate and ward limits of the City of Hagerstown and to provide methods and rates of taxation for the area so annexed to said City, and to provide for the registering of voters in the territory so annexed to said City, by repealing and re-enacting with amendments the following Sections of Article 22, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hagerstown," of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland of 1888, as legalized by Chapter 74 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1888, to wit: Section 154, and Section 155, and Section 194 as amended by Chapter 386 of the Acts of 1900, and by adding a new Section to said Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Hagerstown," to follow after Section 159-I, and to be known as Section 159-I-2.