

SEC. 112-A. Any person who shall dredge or otherwise take oysters from any of the natural beds or bars in the waters of this State, or neutral zones surrounding them, in violation of any of the laws of this State, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction in any Circuit Court for any County of this State, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, before which such case is tried, shall be subject to all the penalties provided in Section 24 of this Article, for taking oysters unlawfully within the provisions of certain Sections therein referred to, and the Board of Public Works is hereby authorized to purchase and maintain motor or other boats that may be required by the State Fishery Force to enforce the provisions of this Section, and to pay for the same out of the revenues received under this Act.

SEC. 115-A. It shall be unlawful for any person other than a lessee under this Act, or for any lessee under this Act, while he shall be in default in payment of rent, to appropriate to himself for any purpose any of the barren bottoms under the waters of this State, which are, by the provisions of this Act, subject to lease, or to use such barren bottoms in any way for the purpose of bedding, planting or cultivating oysters, and any person violating any of the provisions of this Section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction in any Circuit Court of any County in this State, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, before which such case is tried, shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars for each violation thereof. Each day during which or in which any of the acts prohibited by this Section may be performed shall constitute a separate violation of its provisions. It shall be the duty of the State's Attorney of the County having jurisdiction, or of Baltimore City, at the request of the Board of Shell Fish Commissioners, to prosecute any one violating the provisions of this Section. The net proceeds of fines collected under this Section shall be applied as follows: One-half of the same shall be paid to the informer, if any, and the remainder shall be applied according to the provisions of Section 118 of this Article. Provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to the temporary deposit of oysters at the owner's risk upon any of the barren bottoms of this State not leased, if such oysters are removed by the owner within three months from the time of such deposit.

SEC. II. And be it enacted, That the following three Sections be and they are hereby added to said Article 72 of the Code of
