

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Harford County be and they are hereby authorized and required to levy upon the assessable property of said County as other County charges are levied, a sum or sums not exceeding $2,400, sufficient to pay for said files, cases, equipment and fixtures and for said recording, indexing, filing and classification, unless the receipts of said register's office from fees for services rendered therein shall prove sufficient to pay for said steel furnishings, recording and indexing, after all the office expenses and salaries of said Register and his deputies shall be paid, when said furnishings, recording and indexing shall be paid out of the fees, if any, so remaining.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 2nd, 1914.

CHAPTER 270.

AN ACT to provide for the appointment of twenty-five Commissioners to represent the State of Maryland at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and to provide an appropriation of $75,000 for the use of said Commissioners to enable them to have the State of Maryland suitably represented at the said Panama-Pacific International Exposition in the year 1915.

WHEREAS, The State of Maryland and the City of Baltimore are vitally interested in securing their share of the increase of trade which will accrue from the building and opening of the Panama Canal, inasmuch as Baltimore City is one of the largest and most important seaport cities on the Atlantic Coast; and

WHEREAS, Many foreign countries and most of the States of the United States have signified their intention of being represented and making exhibits at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, to be held in the year 1915, in celebration of the opening of the Panama Canal, it is most desirable that a Commission having the interest of the State in charge, be representative and influential, and that a sufficient sum of money be appropriated to allow them to have Maryland properly represented at said exposition.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a Commission of twenty-five members shall be ap-
