

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That when the said bonds shall be duly prepared and duly executed as herein prescribed, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County and their successors are authorized and directed to advertise in not less than four successive weeks in three newspapers published in the City of Baltimore and two newspapers published in the County of Baltimore, together with such other advertisement as they deem proper, inviting sealed proposals for the purchase of said bonds or such part thereof as they are notified by said Board of County School Commissioners should be sold to provide funds for building the school buildings, or purchasing the property which they are authorized under this Act to construct or purchase, reserving the right to the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County to accept or reject any and all bids, and for this purpose the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County are hereby given full authority to ask for bids, market and sell such bonds and grant to the purchaser or purchasers thereof an unconditional title pledging as payment therefor and for the payment of the interest to accrue thereon the assessable property in Baltimore County. The said County Commissioners may offer them at different intervals and in such installments or amounts as may be advantageous in carrying out the work for which they are issued. The money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be payable upon the delivery thereof to the Treasurer of Baltimore County, who shall keep the same as a separate fund for the use of the Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County in some depository to be selected by the County Commissioners, and to be paid out on the order of the said Board of County School Commissioners, and said fund is to be exclusively used for the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Baltimore County be and they are hereby authorized and directed to levy annually upon the assessable property of Baltimore County, as a part of the annual levy in each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest upon said bonds so by them to be issued, and also the principal of said bonds as they respectively mature and fall due.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be taken or construed to amend, modify or in any way affect any Act or Acts. law or laws relating to the moneys or funds or the amount thereof now payable to the Board of County School Commissioners for the use of the schools of said County.