

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall give at least ten days' notice of all elections and registrations by posting hand bills in at least five conspicuous places in said town.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That Joseph McCormick, Benjamin Bradley and Thomas Mowbray be and they are hereby appointed registrars to hold the first or second registration of voters under this Act, and that immediately after the passage of this Act they shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place thereof by hand bills posted in at least five public places in said town, at which all qualified voters as provided for in the third Section of this Act may be registered; and the said officers of registration shall take oath before some justice of the peace of the said County, to permit every qualified voter to register and none other; the majority of the registration officers shall have power to do all things under this Section in case one of them dies or refuses to act; that upon the completion of the registry of voters the officers herein named shall give the judges of election a list of the names so registered; and after this Act shall take effect the said Commissioners shall make such rules and regulations in regard to registration of voters as they may deem proper.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That F. P. Showalter, J. H. McGann and Gordon Durst be, and they are hereby appointed, judges of election to hold the first or the second election under this Act, and that at least ten days before the first Monday in May, nineteen hundred and fourteen, or the first Monday in May, nineteen hundred and fifteen, they shall give notice that the election shall be held and the time and place thereof by hand bills posted in at least five public places in said town, at which election all persons qualified as prescribed in Section three of this Act, shall be entitled to vote for five persons for Commissioners, one person for Clerk and one person for Bailiff, and such judges of election before opening the polls, shall take oath before some justice of the peace in Allegany County, to permit every qualified voter to vote and none other, and a majority of said judges shall have power to do all things herein provided in case one should die or refuse to act.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That at the said election each voter shall be provided with a ticket by the judges of election, similar to what is known as the Australian Ballot, which is being used in the State of Maryland for County and State elec-