

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding Section, shall upon indictment and conviction thereof be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the County Jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That any vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors sold in Garrett County, shall be liable to pay damages to any husband, wife, parents, child, employer or other person, injured by reason of any person being intoxicated by liquor sold by said vendor in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, to be recovered in the same manner as debts for like amounts are now recovered by law.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That nothing in the preceding Sections shall be construed to authorize any sale or barter or the giving away of any spirituous or fermented liquor on the Sabbath Day, commonly called "Sunday," or on the day of any election held in said County under the constitution and laws of the State or of the United States.

SEC. 28. And be it enacted, That in any prosecution under this Act it shall be only necessary to state that the traverser did sell or give away spirituous, fermented, or malt liquor without specifying the particular kind of liquor given away.

SEC. 29. And be it enacted, That any person who shall fraudulently procure a license as a hotel keeper, without having complied in good faith with the provisions of this Act, defining hotel keepers, shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars; the license granted shall be suppressed by the Court, and it shall be unlawful for the Clerk to issue any other license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors to such persons.

SEC. 30. And be it enacted, That all prosecution for violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be upon presentment and indictment, and it shall be the duty of any Justice of the Peace of Garrett County upon information received and confirmed by the oath of a creditable witness to have any person arrested and committed to the County jail for a violation of the provisions of this Act, unless such person shall give sufficient bail or recognizance with sureties to appear before the Circuit Court for Garrett County at the next succeeding term thereof to answer the charge.
