

clerk shall issue said permit he shall require the applicant thereof to produce before him satisfactory written testimony from at least two scientific men certifying to the good character of the applicant, and that he is a proper person to be entrusted with such privilege, and he shall also demand from said applicant a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by said clerk, in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned for the strict observance of the privilege so granted; should the person obtaining such permit catch any of the birds mentioned in Section 4 or disturb or destroy the eggs or young as mentioned in Section 5 of this Article for other than scientific purposes, he shall forfeit to the County the bond herein required to be given, and shall also be subject for each offense to the penalty provided in this Section for other purposes.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the possession by any person or persons within said County, of any of the birds mentioned in Section 4 of this Act, whether taken in the State of Maryland or elsewhere, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation by such person or persons of Section 4 of this Act, and it shall be the duty of any constable, police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy game warden or chief game warden of said County to arrest any and all persons they may detect in or who may be charged with the violations of Sections 4 or 5 of this Act, and take them before a justice of the peace to be dealt with according to law.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That no person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill, trap, pursue, injure, hunt, take or have in possession in Baltimore County any rabbit, jack-rabbit, cotton-tail, pheasant, ruffed-grouse, ring-necked pheasant, partridge or quail between December 20th and November 10th, exclusive, of both dates, or upon any Sunday or election day, or when the ground is sufficiently covered with snow to track the rabbits or birds above mentioned; and no person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill, trap, pursue, injure, hunt, take or have in possession in Baltimore County any squirrel between September 30th and September 1st, exclusive of both dates or upon any Sunday. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined five dollars and costs for each and every offense, and an additional five dollars for every rabbit, jack-rabbit, cotton-tail, pheasant, ruffed grouse, ring-necked pheasant, partridge, quail or squirrel killed,