

head of such hawk, owl or weasel so taken or killed within the limits of Baltimore County, so as to prevent a second allowance.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That the chief game warden of Baltimore County is hereby authorized in his discretion to pay said sum of fifty cents for each and every hawk, owl or weasel as shown in said certificate to have been taken or killed within the limits of Baltimore County.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall, on or before the first day of May, A. D., 1914, and every two years thereafter appoint a game warden for Baltimore County, who shall be recommended to them by the Baltimore County Game and Fish Protective Association (incorporated March 16, 1911), subject to the Constitution and By-Laws of said Association, and who shall hold office for two years, or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, whichever shall first occur. The person so appointed chief game warden for Baltimore County shall have been a resident and voted in said County for not less than four years next preceding his appointment. And said chief game warden of Baltimore County shall receive a salary to be retained by him from moneys coming into his hands from the issuance of hunting and gunning licenses as herein provided, and the collection of fines for the violation of the fish and game laws of Baltimore County of six hundred dollars, and the reasonable expense of his office not to exceed four hundred dollars in any one year; providing the receipts of said office shall equal that amount and all money over and above said amounts shall be used by the said chief game warden of Baltimore County, in purchasing, procuring, protecting and propagating game in Baltimore County. The chief game warden for Baltimore County may be removed at any time by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, after it shall have been affirmatively made to appear upon written charges, preferred at least ten days prior to the hearing thereon, that said chief game warden has neglected or improperly discharged the duties of his office. And the chief game warden for Baltimore County so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before an officer empowered under the law of this State to take or receive affidavits in Baltimore County the oath or affirmation prescribed by the sixth Section of the First Article of the Constitution of this State.

SEC. 17-A. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the chief game warden for Baltimore County to have
