

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That the boundaries of the new Election District shall be the same as the present boundaries of Precinct number three of Election District number ten, or Straits.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That the Election Supervisors of Dorchester County shall provide poll books, such as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the registration of voters in each district for the said new District, and have transcribed in the said books the names, together with all other matters required by law, of all persons who are now qualified to vote in the third precinct of Election District number ten, or Straits, of Dorchester County.

SEC. 4. Be it enacted, That the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Dorchester County in the year 1914, and annually thereafter, at the usual time for appointing judges of election and officers of registration, as is now, or may hereafter be prescribed by law, shall appoint judges of election and officers of registration for the said new District, and make all provisions necessary for the holding of elections thereafter.

SEC. 5. Be it enacted, That the Governor of Maryland, at the January Session, 1916, and every two years thereafter, shall appoint one Justice of the Peace for the said new District; and that the County Commissioners of Dorchester County in the year 1914, and annually thereafter, at the usual time for making such appointment, shall appoint one constable for said District; the County Commissioners of Dorchester County in the year 1914, and annually thereafter, at the usual time for making such appointment, as is provided by law, shall appoint a Collector of Taxes for said new district. The County Commissioners of Dorchester County shall provide for having the assessment book which is now titled "Precinct number three, District number ten," or "Straits," titled "District number eighteen, or Elliott's Island."

SEC. 6. Be it enacted, That all laws, both General and Local, which are now in force in the said Third Precinct of Election District number ten, or Straits, shall be and remain in force as they now are, or may hereafter be amended, so far as they do not conflict with any of the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 7. Be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 10th, 1914.
