

of the Chief Game Warden of Harford County be entitled to an allowance of fifty cents for every chicken hawk, pigeon hawk, booby owl or weasel taken and killed by such person within the limits of said County, which allowance or allowances shall be paid out of the funds arising from the sale of licenses and for fines in the hands of the said Chief Game Warden of Harford County.

SEC. 44 P. And be it further enacted, That any person killing any chicken hawk, pigeon hawk, booby owl or weasel shall produce the head of same before some Justice of the Peace of said County, and make oath that said hawk, owl or weasel was taken and killed within the limits of Harford County within six days then preceding, and the Justice of the Peace shall thereupon give such person a certificate wherein he shall set forth the oath and shall at the same time destroy the head of said hawk, owl or weasel so as to prevent a second allowance; and the Chief Game Warden aforesaid shall in no case pay the allowance provided for in Section 44 O until the certificate as provided for in this Section, is presented to him, and in all cases in which he shall pay the allowance provided for as aforesaid, he shall keep the certificate of the Justice to be filed by him as a voucher when making his report to the County Commissioners of Harford County as hereinbefore provided for in this Act.

SEC. 45. And be it further enacted, That any person against whom any Justice of the Peace shall render a judgment under the provisions of the preceding Sections of this Act, may at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, appeal from such judgment to the Circuit Court of Harford County.

SEC. 46. And be it further enacted, That all fines which may be collected under the provisions of the preceding Sections of this Act shall be paid in full to the informer or informers or person or persons securing the conviction of the party or parties violating any of the provisions of said Act, except when the information and conviction is procured by the Chief Game Warden of Harford County, and in that event the Chief Game Warden shall account to the County Commissioners for such fines in the same manner as he does for the license fees, and the said fines so collected shall be expended for the same purposes as the receipts from the license fees aforesaid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, and all Sections or parts of Articles of the Code of Public General or Code of
