

46 of the Acts of 1906; for the salary of the Custodian of Works of Reference, twelve hundred dollars; to the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, the sum of three thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for dairy inspections; to George H. Lamar, for services as attorney-at-law under authority of the Attorney-General and the Governor, in defending the validity and preserving the effectiveness of the Act of the General Assembly, approved April 11, 1910, Chapter 220, entitled "An Act to regulate fares on the line of the Washington and Rockville Railway Company in Montgomery County," including incidental expenses personally defrayed, and the bill of Messrs. Smith and Hulse, incurred for two carbon copies of certain evidence taken before the Special Examiner, one copy of which for the Chief Engineer of the Public Service Commission, and the other for Special Counsel for the State, amounting to seventy-five dollars, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars; to the Commissioner of the Land Office, to provide for furnishing the Land Office of Maryland, in the Court of Appeals Building at Annapolis, with steel filing cases for books, and other necessary precautions to insure the safety of record books now on file in the Land Office, the sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and the further sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to modernize the index system relative to certificates, patents, etc., from the earliest to the present date, now on file in the Land Office of Maryland; for weather stripping the Executive Mansion and installing electric pump in the basement of Executive Mansion, six hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for repairs, painting, etc., to the old State Capitol Building and grounds, including automatic sprinkler system for dome and revolving door to main entrance, etc., the sum of twenty-three hundred and seventy-five dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for repairs, etc., to the new State Capitol Building, including electric motor for new elevator, twenty-six hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for repairs, etc., to the Court of Appeals Building, six hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for painting, etc., at the heating and power plant, two hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for repairs to the Governor's stable, seventy-five dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for painting and repairs to the old Treasury Building, two hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for retouching and cleaning portraits in the