

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful to shoot or trap foxes in Cecil County, for the purpose of bartering and selling, and any person or persons having any fox or fox hide in their possession shall be deemed guilty of the above offense, unless they can produce satisfactory proof that will lead to the principal of the offense.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to be found upon the premises of another with any trap upon his person, or to molest the den of any fur or hair bearing animal by any human device, or to set any trap, snare, deadfall or device, without first having upon his person the written permission of the owner or agent of such premises to do so.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the above Acts, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than Twenty Dollars or not less than Ten Dollars for each offense with costs of prosecution, provided, however, that any person may protect his premises against the depredators of any fur bearing animal at any time, in any way or manner.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That these Acts shall take effect from the dates of their passage.

Approved April 13th, 1914.
