

The issuance of an internal revenue special tax stamp or receipt by the United States to any person as a wholesale or retail dealer in liquors, or in malt liquors at any place within territory which, at the time of the issuance thereof, is Anti-Saloon Territory, shall be prima facie evidence of the sale of intoxicating liquor by such person at such place, or at any place of business of such person within such territory where such stamp or receipt is posted, and at the time charged in any suit or prosecution under this Act: Provided, that such time is within the life of such stamp or receipt.

SEC. 23. And be it further enacted, (A) That if any person makes a sworn complaint or affidavit before any Justice of the Peace having criminal jurisdiction, or Judges of the Circuit Court of Carroll County (particularly describing the house or place to be searched and the things to be searched for) that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that intoxicating liquor is sold or kept for the purpose of being sold in violation of the provisions of this Act, such Justice of the Peace or Judge shall issue his warrant, directed to any officer whom the complainant may designate having power to serve criminal process, commanding him to search the premises described and designated in such complaint and warrant, and the appurtenances thereof, and if any such shall there be found, to take into his possession and safely keep all intoxicating liquor and the vessels in which it is contained if the same shall be found in quantities and under such conditions as to suggest that it is kept for sale, and all the means used for the sale of the same, all the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a bar room or drinking saloon, and any United States internal revenue tax receipt for the sale of intoxicating liquor effective for the period of time covering the alleged offense, and forthwith report in writing all the facts and make immediate return on said warrant.

(B) The warrant for search shall be directed to the proper officer and shall show by copy of the affidavit inserted therein or annexed and referred to, or recite, all the material facts alleged in the affidavit and particularly describe the thing to be searched for and the place to be searched. A warrant for search substantially in the following form shall be sufficient:
