

General Laws of Maryland be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read respectively as follows:

SEC. 6. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint an Advisory Board to be known as the Advisory Board of Parole, to consist of three members, who shall each be not less than thirty years of age, and who shall each have been, for the four years next preceding his appointment, a resident and qualified voter of the State of Maryland. And be it enacted, That the members of the Advisory Board of Parole hereunder shall be Charles D. Reid, Samuel J. Twilley and Dr. J. Hubert Wade, and they are hereby appointed and constituted as members of said Board, to serve respectively for the terms of six, four and two years, from the date of the passage of this Act and until their respective successors shall qualify, and the said Charles D. Reid shall be President or Chairman thereof. One of said Board shall hold office for six years from the beginning of the term of his office and until his successor shall qualify; and one of said Board shall hold office for four years from the beginning of his term of office and until his successor shall qualify; and one of said Board shall hold office for two years from the beginning of his term of office and until his successor shall qualify. On the expiration of each of said terms, the term of office of each member of said Advisory Board shall be six years from the time of his appointment and qualification and until his successor shall qualify. On the expiration of each of said terms, the term of office of each member of said Advisory Board shall be six years from the time of his appointment and qualification and until his successor shall qualify.

Vacancies in said Board shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

In the event that the term of office above described and prescribed for each of said members of said Advisory Board shall, in respect to any of said members, be held and decided by the Court of Appeals of Maryland to be in excess of the period or term of office allowed or permitted by the Constitution of Maryland, then, and in such event, the term of office of each of said members shall be, and this Act hereby declares and determines that the term of office of each of them shall be for the period of two years from and after the first Monday of May,
