

voke said conditional pardon, the person so released on such conditional pardon shall be required, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, to serve the unserved portion of the sentence originally imposed upon him; and said person, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, shall not be considered as serving any portion of his original sentence during the time he is released by virtue of such conditional pardon.

SEC. 7 F. It shall be the duty of said Board to collect all information that may aid it in determining the advisability of recommending to the Governor the conditional pardon of any person sentenced under the laws of Maryland, and whenever said Board shall, upon examination, be of the opinion that both the interests of the State and the interests of any prisoner sentenced under the laws of Maryland would be best subserved by a conditional pardon, it shall be the duty of said Board to lay before the Governor for his consideration those facts and circumstances which induced their conclusion in that respect.

SEC. 7 G. Whenever the Governor shall conditionally pardon any person sentenced under the laws of Maryland and shall prescribe as one of the conditions of such pardon that said person shall continue under the supervision of the Advisory Board of Parole during the term of such conditional pardon, it shall be the duty of said Advisory Board of Parole to supervise during said term the life and conduct of the person so conditionally pardoned and to ascertain and report to the Governor whether or not the conditions of said pardon are being faithfully complied with by said person. And whenever the Circuit Court of any County or the Criminal Court of Baltimore shall suspend the sentence of, or parole, any person convicted of crime, and shall direct such person to continue, for a time certain or until otherwise ordered, under the supervision of said Advisory Board of Parole, it shall be the duty of said Advisory Board of Parole to supervise, as directed by said Court, the life and conduct of such person, and to ascertain and report to said Court whether or not the conditions of such parole or suspension of sentence are being faithfully complied with by said person.

SEC. 7 H. The sum of fifteen thousand ($15,000.00) dollars annually is hereby appropriated to pay the salaries of the Secretary and the parole officers, herein provided for, and for the purchase of all needful books and records and for the necessary traveling and other expenses of said Advisory Board and of said parole officers, and shall be payable on the order or orders
