

of one dollar ($1.00) as a fee to the said Commissioner for issuing said license, may obtain a license for carrying on the business of an insurance broker; provided, however, that any natural person, bona fide co-partnership, or corporation residing in any of the Counties of this State may, upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00), for the use of the State, and an additional sum of one dollar ($1.00) as a fee to the said Commissioner for issuing said license, obtain a license to act as broker as to risks situated in the County only within which he, they or it may reside. A license issued to a co-partnership or corporation shall authorize only those members of the co-partnership, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, or those officers, agents and employes of the corporation, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, to act for the said co-partnership or for the said corporation thereunder. The Insurance Commissioner shall from time to time, upon application, and payment of an additional sum of fifty cents in each such case as a fee to the Insurance Commissioner, change the designations of members of co-partnerships, and of officers, agents and employes of corporations in licenses issued under this Section to co-partnerships and corporations. Every application for a license under this Section shall be addressed to the Insurance Commissioner in writing, shall set forth in full the name and address of each such applicant, and the name and address of each person who proposes to act under a license issued as aforesaid to any co-partnership or corporation, that each such applicant or person proposing to act under such license has not wilfully violated any of the insurance laws of this State during the past year and that he will not violate any such law during the term of license applied for if issued; that he has not dealt unjustly with or deceived any citizen of this State or misrepresented the conditions of any insurance policy or contract; whether or not he is indebted to any insurance company or general agent by virtue of any contract as former agent or broker; whether or not his license as insurance agent or broker has been declined or revoked in this or any other State for a violation of law; where and in what business engaged during the past year, and shall give full answers to the following questions: Do you understand that it is against the laws of this State (a) to act as broker for any company without license from this department, (b) to misrepresent the conditions of any policy contract, (c) to make any discrimination between citizens of this State in premiums, or in rebating any part of premiums or commissions, or to twist or attempt to twist policies by mis-
