

401 to 407, inclusive, and Section 409 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Streets," and Section 431 of the said Article, sub-title "Twelfth District," so as to give to, impose on and repose in the County Commissioners of Baltimore County all the powers, duties and authority, rights, privileges or property in respect to the public streets, avenues and alleys of Baltimore County now had by the Highways Commission of Baltimore County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 386 to 388 inclusive, Sections 390 to 392 inclusive, Sections 394 to 398 inclusive, Sections 401 to 407 inclusive, and Section 409 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Streets," and Section 431 of the said Article, sub-title "Twelfth District," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

386. Whenever it may be desirable to have any street or avenue, which may have been already laid off, extended beyond its terminus, the owners of a majority of front feet of ground, bounding and fronting on any portion of said street or avenue, as laid off, and including the line of the proposed extension, may make application to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, in writing, setting forth the street or avenue that they desire to have extended, and the line, approximate distance, and the point of termination of such proposed extension; and when said application is presented, the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall appoint one examiner, or three examiners in the manner hereinafter provided for, whose duty it shall be to lay off and extend said streets or avenue in accordance with said application, and the provisions of this sub-title of this Article; but said street or avenue shall be laid off and extended in conformity with the streets and avenues of Baltimore City, and with the streets and avenues already laid off in Baltimore County, so far as practicable; and before any examiner or examiners shall proceed to act in the premises, he or they shall take an oath or affirmation before some Justice of the Peace of the State, in and for Baltimore County, that he or they will well and truly lay off and extend the said street or avenue, and will, in all respects, act without prejudice or partiality in the matter; and after having made such oath or affirmation, the examiner or examiners shall give at least ten days' notice by publication in one or more
