

to supersede or repeal the laws now regulating the drawing of juries by ballot, but simply to provide another way of drawing them, leaving the judges in said Judicial Circuit free to use either the ballot system or the marble or ball system as may be most convenient and satisfactory to the judge or judges drawing a jury.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the first day of May, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

Approved March 12th, 1914.

CHAPTER 73.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the Mayor and Council of Easton to purchase from the Easton Water Company of Talbot County its water works, including the capital stock, real estate, springs, reservoirs, water mains, laterals, standpipe, machinery, meters, water rights, privileges and franchises pertaining thereto; to purchase the leasehold interest of the Easton Ice Company of Talbot County in a part of the land of the Easton Water Company and the buildings thereon erected, and to borrow money for this purpose on the faith and credit of the town and to assume the outstanding bonded indebtedness against said company.

WHEREAS, The Easton Water Company of Talbot County has made an offer to sell to the Mayor and Council of Easton its water works, including its capital stock, franchises, machinery, water mains, laterals, standpipe and all other property real and personal connected therewith, at a price named in said offer; and

WHEREAS, The Mayor and Council have, as provided by their Charter, submitted the proposition for acceptance or rejection of said offer to the qualified voters of the said town at a special election held for that purpose on the 15th day of December, 1913; and

WHEREAS, A majority of said voters who voted for and against the proposition have voted in favor of the acceptance of said proposition, and it now becomes the duty of the Mayor and Council to consummate such purchase; therefore,
