

Baldwin Cotton proposes to continue the publishing of the same up to the abolishment of the Prerogative Court in 1777, in five volumes in addition to those previously subscribed for.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the State Librarian be and he is hereby authorized and directed to purchase one hundred and fifty copies of the sixth volume of "The Maryland Calendar of Wills," and to subscribe for one hundred and fifty copies of each succeeding volume, each copy to cost three dollars, and the Librarian is hereby authorized and directed to draw an order on the Comptroller of the Treasury for the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars for the one hundred and fifty copies of each volume, when delivered to the Librarian by the said Jane Baldwin Cotton or her agent; and on receipt of such order the Comptroller of the State be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the State Treasurer for the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars, the cost for one hundred and fifty copies of each volume of said "Maryland Calendar of Wills," as per order of the State Librarian; provided that only one volume shall be accepted and paid for in any one fiscal year; and it is further provided that the remainder of the indexing shall be completed in not exceeding five volumes.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the State Librarian shall distribute said books as follows: Two sets to the Governor of Maryland; two sets to the Land Office; one set to the Register of Wills of each County in the State and of Baltimore City, for use in their respective offices and courts, and the remaining sets to remain in the State Library for exchange with other State Libraries for similar publications, retaining not less than five volumes of each set for the use of the State Library.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13th, 1914.

CHAPTER 537.

AN ACT to authorize and empower William T. Johnson to construct a wharf on the west side of Fishing Bay at Hollands Point on Goose Creek, in Dorchester County, near the end of the County Roads on lands belonging to said William T. Johnson and Mrs. Mary O. Robinson.