

Peace or Notary Public of the taking of such oaths among the records of the Corporation, and the said oath and Certificate shall be recorded among the minutes of the proceedings of the Commissioners.

12. That the said Commissioners shall determine all questions arising from or under any election held under this Act, but any person feeling aggrieved by their decision may appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court of Dorchester County at any time within ten days from such decision, which Court shall hear and determine such appeal and who shall pay the cost thereof.

13. That the Commissioners may pass any and all ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of Maryland, they may deem beneficial to the town; and the good government thereof; to prevent, remove or abate all nuisances; to suppress all disorderly meetings; to prohibit the use of profane language, and indecent and disorderly conduct in said town; to prevent obstructing the sidewalks or streets; to regulate or prevent the firing of guns, pistols, quibs or any kind of firearms in said town; the running at large in said town of all animals; immoderate riding or driving through the streets of said town; indecent exhibitions of every kind; to preserve order and secure persons and property from violence, danger or destruction; to prevent obstructing the streets or sidewalks by unnecessary assemblies of persons; to regulate or prevent the use of fire-crackers and other explosives on the streets and alleys of said town; to regulate the erection and location of buildings, fences and enclosures in said town and to grant permits therefor; to protect public property, sidewalks, shade and ornamental trees, from injury and destructions; to provide for the paving of the sidewalks and assessing and taxing the expenses thereof, in whole or in part upon the respective owners of the property fronting thereon; to impose a license or tax on street vendors of so-called patent medicines and nostrums, public exhibitions or amusements of all kinds which charge admission fees, except those for charitable and benevolent purposes; to impose a tax on the owners or reputed owners of all dogs and bitches kept by them in the said town; to promote the morality, health, convenience and safety of the inhabitants of said town; to enforce sanitary observances and the removal of filth, and to pass all such other ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town and the removal of nuisances from said town; to prohibit all business within the said town as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the saintary condi-
