

board for the particular school district shall devolve upon the county board of education.

CHAPTER 3.

The State Board of Education.

8. The state board of education shall hold its annual meeting each year at the office of the State Department of Education, on the last Wednesday in May. At this meeting the board shall each year elect one of its members to serve as president, and one to serve as vice-president. Other regular meetings shall be held on the last Wednesday of August, November and February, and such special meetings may be held as the duties and business of the board may require.

10. The members of the state board of education shall receive no salary, but their actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in attending the meetings and transacting the business of the board shall be paid. The state superintendent of schools shall be the chief executive, the secretary and the treasurer of the state board of education. He shall attend all meetings of the board and of its committees, except when his own tenure, salary or the administration of his office are under consideration, and shall have the right to advise on any question under consideration, but shall have no right to vote.

11. The state board of education shall, to the best of their ability, cause the provisions of this article to be carried into effect. They shall determine the educational policies of the State; they shall enact by-laws for the administration of the public school system, which when enacted and published shall have the force of law. For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this article, and the enacted and published by-laws of the Board, the state board of education shall, if necessary, institute legal proceedings.

12. The state board of education shall exercise, through the state superintendent of schools and his professional assistants, general control and supervision over the public schools and educational interests of the State; they shall consult with and advise, through their executive officer and his professional assistants, county boards of education, boards of district school trustees, county superintendents, supervisors, attendance officers, principals, teachers, and interested citizens, and shall seek in every way to direct and develop public sentiment in support of public education.
