

shall recommend the same for approval to the county board of education.

72 I. The county superintendent of schools shall prepare courses of study, subject to the rules and regulations and the courses of study of the state board of education, for the public schools of the county, and shall recommend the same for adoption by the county board of education.

72J. The county superintendent of schools shall prepare lists of such text-books, supplementary readers, materials of instruction, stationery and school supplies, school furniture, equipment and apparatus, as are needed by the schools, and shall recommend the purchase and distribution of the same by the county board of education.

73. The county superintendent of schools, acting under the rules and regulations of the county board of education, shall be responsible for the administration of the office of the county superintendent of schools. He shall nominate, for appointment by the county board of education, all the professional, clerical, statistical and stenographic assistants of the office; he shall recommend their removal for immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, insubordination or wilful neglect of duty, and he shall see that all regular appointees of the county board of education devote their entire time to their duties. But the qualifications of all appointments, their tenure and compensation, except as may hereinafter be provided, shall be determined by the county board of education. The office of the county superintendent of schools shall, beginning with the school year, 1916-1917, be provided as follows with professional, clerical, statistical and stenographic assistants; provided that all professional, clerical, statistical and stenographic assistants holding office at the time of the enactment of this section shall continue to serve to the end of the terms for which they were originally appointed, and until their successors qualify, unless removed as herein provided; and provided further that they shall be paid, beginning with the school year 1916-1917, on the basis of the salaries herein specified:

(1) In each county employing not less than one hundred (100) teachers, there shall be appointed at least one primary grade supervisor, who shall receive such compensation as the county board of education shall direct; provided that no person shall be eligible for appointment as a supervisor who does not hold from the superintendent of public education a certificate in supervision as provided for in section 55 of this article;
