

86. There may also be maintained, at each white state normal school a four year preparatory course of a standard high school grade for the accommodation of such students as desire to teach but who are not provided with local high school advantages; but no pupil may be admitted to this four year course of a high school grade who has not completed the work of the public elementary schools.

87. Students regularly admitted to the state normal schools from the city of Baltimore and the several counties, who shall obligate themselves to teach in the State of Maryland, shall have free tuition and shall be furnished the use of text books free of charge. Other students may be admitted to these schools, in the discretion of the board of trustees, who possess the prescribed qualifications for admission, on payment of a fixed and uniform fee as determined by the board of trustees.

88. The several and respective sums hereafter appropriated by the General Assembly for the erection of buildings, or additions, repairs, up-keep, maintenance and support of each of the state normal schools shall, unless otherwise specified and provided, be paid in equal instalments on the first day of January, March, June and October to the treasurer of the state board of education. On or before said dates, the Comptroller shall draw his warrant on the treasurer of the State of Maryland for the respective amounts due on said dates to the treasurer of the state board of education. On receipt of the warrant of the Comptroller, the Treasurer of the State of Maryland shall immediately pay the amount due on said dates to the treasurer of the state board of education, and the same shall be paid to and applied by the board of trustees of the state normal schools to the payment of teachers' salaries, clerical and other assistance, for the purchase of apparatus, school furniture, text books, library and reference books, stationery, light, fuel, and for other necessary expenses in maintaining and supporting the respective state normal schools, and when special appropriations are made for the erection of buildings or additions or unusual repairs the same shall be used for the special purpose. The treasurer of the state board of education shall make, on or before January the first of each year, to the Governor, a report of the receipts and disbursements of each of the state normal schools.
