

CHAPTER 19.

Source and Distribution of Income.

133. All money appropriated, subsequent to the enactment of this section, by the General Assembly of the State of Maryland and the receipts from any state public school tax levied by the General Assembly, to aid in support of public schools, shall constitute what shall be known as the General State School Fund. The comptroller shall charge against and pay as hereinbefore or hereinafter provided from the General State School Fund, the annual appropriation made by the General Assembly for the support of the state department of education, including the expenses of the state board of education, and the support and expenses of the office of the state superintendent of schools; the annual appropriation for the maintenance and support of the state normal school at Towson; of the state normal school No. 2 at Frostburg, and of the state normal school No. 3 at Bowie; the annual appropriation for retired teachers' pensions; the annual appropriation for state aid to approved high schools; the annual appropriation for state aid to approved colored industrial schools; the annual appropriation for part payment by the State of the salaries of county superintendents and of the superintendent of schools of Baltimore City, and of one supervisor, and of one attendance officer in each of the several counties and the City of Baltimore; the annual appropriation for the purchase of text books, materials of instruction and school supplies. But no special appropriation to any county; to any academy, or to any college or university may be paid from the General State School Fund.

136. Such appropriations as are made by the General Assembly for the payment of the expenses of the state board of education and for the support and expenses of the office of the state superintendent of schools shall be paid each year in equal instalments on the first day of January, March, June and October, to the treasurer of the state board of education. On or before said dates the Comptroller shall draw his warrant on the Treasurer of the State of Maryland for the respective amounts due on said dates to the Treasurer of the State Board of Education. On the receipt of the warrant of the Comptroller, the Treasurer of the State of Maryland shall immediately pay the amount due on said dates to the Treasurer of the State Board of Education.
