

each receive a sum not exceeding two dollars per annum, provided that any person shall have the right to donate to the town their services whenever they see proper so to do.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said council shall have power to pass all such other ordinances not contrary to the constitution or laws of this state as it may deem necessary for the good government of the town; for the protection and preservation of the town property, rights and privileges; for the preservation of the peace and good order; and securing persons from violence, danger and destruction; for the protection of the health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of said town and visitors thereto or sojourners there; for providing for proper and suitable lights on the streets; for establishing, maintaining and regulating an adequate police force; to regulate the management and location of livery stables, barns, garages, outhouses or privies and hog pens, and such other establishments of which the business, trade or location may become obnoxious or injurious to the public comfort or health; to prohibit the erection of such buildings, the continuance of obnoxious occupations therein whenever the public health requires it; to prevent and regulate the use of firearms therein, fireworks, bonfires or other things or practices tending to endanger persons or property; to regulate or prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses, swine, fowls, sheep, goats, hogs or other animals; to authorize the impounding, keeping, sale and redemption of such animals when found in violation of the ordinances in such cases provided; to prevent the deposit of any unwholesome substance either on public or private property, to compel its removal to designated points, and to require slop, ashes and other waste or unwholesome material to be removed to designated points, or to require the occupants or residents on premises to place them conveniently for removal; to compel the occupants of any premises, buildings or outhouses situate in said town when the same has become filthy or unwholesome to abate or clean the same; to authorize the same to be done by the proper officers and to assess the expenses thereon against such property; to authorize the removal or confinement of such persons having infectious or pestilential diseases; to regulate the selling, weighing or measuring of hay, wood, coke, coal, and all other articles sold by weight and measure, and to provide for their inspection and selling; to make all regulations which may be deemed expedient for the promotion of health or the suppression of disease;