

Section two of Chapter 183 of the Laws of Maryland, passed at the session of 1890, entitled "An Act to create a Treasurer for Calvert County and to provide for the collection of taxes therein," be and the same respectively are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the said county commissioners within ten days after the annual tax levy shall have been made, to deliver to the Treasurer a fair copy of the assessment lists of said county showing the aggregate assessment of every person, corporate, institution or set of persons, as the same then appears on the assessment books of said county with the names of said owners arranged according to election districts and alphabetically for each district, and also to deliver to the said Treasurer a certified copy of the rule or resolution of said commissioners making said tax levy, and also to deliver to said treasurer a certified copy of each item for which and each person for whom a levy is made and the amount thereof, and the said treasurer shall pay the same out of his collections upon the order of the party or parties entitled thereto, and the said treasurer shall be entitled to a commission of four per centum on the amount of State and County taxes collected and paid over by him; and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners of said county at their annual levy or taxes, to levy a sufficient sum to pay the estimated commission of the treasurer and the necessary expenses of the office as required by this Law; provided, that this Act shall not affect Malcolm Graham, the present Treasurer of Calvert County during his present term of office, who shall receive five per centum, as heretofore allowed.

11. That at the general election of delegates every fourth year, counting from the year 1917, there shall be elected a County Treasurer for Calvert county by the legally qualified voters of said county, who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor is elected and qualified as hereinafter provided; and be subject at all times to removal by the Governor for wilful neglect of duty or misdemeanor in office, upon conviction in a court of law; and he shall not be eligible to re-election until after the interval of one full term; and the said treasurer shall in all respects be clothed with the powers given by chapter 183 of the Acts of 1890.
