

(c) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is formed and the business or objects to be carried on and promoted by it.

(d) The postoffice address of the place at which the principal office of the corporation in this State will be located and the name or names and postoffice address or addresses of the corporation's resident agent or agents, (giving in each case the county and city, town or place and street and number, if number there be).

(e) The total amount of capital stock, if any, of the proposed corporation, and the number and par value of the shares; and the restrictions, if any, imposed upon the transfer of the shares. If the capital stock is to be classified under the power hereinafter granted, the certificate of incorporation shall also set forth a description of each class, with the preferences, voting powers, restrictions and qualifications of each class and the number and par value of the shares of each class.

(f) The number of trustees, directors or managers, which shall not be less than three; and the names of those who shall act as such until the first annual meeting or until their successors are duly chosen and qualified.

(g) Any provisions which may be desired, for the purpose of defining, limiting and regulating the powers of the corporation, and of the directors and stockholders or any class of the stockholders; provided, such provisions are not contrary to the law of this State or inconsistent with any of the terms and limitations of this article. Any provision which is hereinafter in this article authorized to be made in the by-laws, may, if desired, be made in the certificate of incorporation.

4. Every certificate of incorporation, together with a copy thereof, shall be delivered to the State Tax Commission, which, upon the payment, and not before, of the recording fees, for which provision is hereinafter made, and upon the payment, and not before, of the bonus tax, if any, prescribed by law, shall receive the same for record and endorse thereon the date and time of such receipt and promptly record the same, together with the endorsements thereon, in a book to be kept for that purpose. After such recording the State Tax Commission shall transmit the original certificate of incorporation to the Secretary of State, by whom the same shall be again recorded, and shall transmit a copy thereof, duly certified by it, to the Clerk of the Circuit or Superior Court (according to the
