

strued as limiting or affecting the liability of stockholders in banking, safe deposit, trust and loan corporations.

72. If any person or persons holding in the aggregate five per cent. of the outstanding capital stock of any corporation of this State (or five per cent. of any class of such stock, if two or more classes have been issued) shall present to any officer, director or resident agent of the corporation a written request for a statement of its affairs, it shall be his duty to make or procure such a statement sworn to by the president or a vice-president or by the treasurer or an assistant treasurer, embracing a particular account of its assets and liabilities in detail, and to have the same ready and on file at the principal office of the corporation within twenty days after the presentation of such request. And such statement shall at all times during business hours be open to the inspection of any stockholder, and he shall be entitled to copy the same.

73. Original or duplicate stock ledgers, containing the names and addresses of the stockholders of every corporation of this State, having capital stock, and the number of shares (of each class, if two or more classes have been issued) held by them respectively, shall during the usual business hours of every business day be open for the inspection of any person or persons holding in the aggregate five per cent. of the outstanding capital stock, or five per cent. of any class thereof, if two or more classes have been issued, at its principal office in this State; provided, however, that this provision shall be deemed complied with if the stock ledger, open for inspection as aforesaid, disclose all transfers made up until twenty days before such inspections. The other books of the corporation, wherever located, shall be open to inspection by stockholders upon the terms upon which stock ledgers are open to their inspection.

74. The directors, managers and trustees of every corporation of this State shall keep full and fair accounts of their transactions. The president of every such corporation shall annually prepare a full and true statement of the affairs of the corporation, which shall be submitted at the annual meeting of the stockholders or members and filed within twenty days thereafter at the principal office of the corporation in this State, where it shall, during the usual business hours of every business day, be open for the inspection of every stockholder or member of the corporation.