

employe, such medical, surgical or other attendance or treatment, nurse and hospital services, medicines, crutches, and apparatus as may be required by the Commission in an amount not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00). If the employer fail to provide the same the injured employe may do so at the expense of the employer. All fees and other charges for such treatment and services shall be subject to regulations by the Commission, and shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living, and in case death ensues from the injury within two years, reasonable funeral expenses shall be allowed not to exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75.00). Provided, however, that if there are no dependents and the deceased employe leaves sufficient estate to pay same, all expenses of last sickness and burial shall be paid by said estate and not by the employer or insurance company, or commission out of the State Accident Fund, as the case may be. The Commission shall have full power to adopt rules and regulations with respect to furnishing medical, nurse, hospital services and medicines to injured employes entitled thereto and for the payment therefor.

Section 39. When an employe is entitled to compensation under this Act he shall file with the Commission his application together with a certificate of the physician, if any, who attended him, within thirty days after the beginning of his disability, for which compensation is claimed, and failure to do so unless excused by the Commission, either on the ground that the insurance carrier or the employer has not been prejudiced thereby, or for some other sufficient reason, shall be a bar to any claim under this Act.

When death results from injury the parties entitled to compensation under this Act, or someone in their behalf, shall make application for same to the Commission, which application must be accompanied with proof of death and proof of relationship showing the parties to be entitled to compensation under this Act, certificates of attending physician, if attended by a physician, and such other proof as may be required by the rules of the Commission.

Section 46. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore or hereinafter contained, no employe or dependent of any employe shall be entitled to receive any compensation or benefits under this Act on account of any injury to or death of an employe caused by self-inflicted injury, the wilful misconduct, or where
