

SEC. 83A. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners so elected shall provide for stated meetings either monthly, semi-monthly, or weekly as they may think proper but shall publicly proclaim the same and may meet and adjourn for any special meeting for any purpose whatsoever and all meetings of the Commissioners shall be public.

SEC. 83B. And be it enacted, That immediately after their qualification as Commissioners they shall hold a special meeting at which time they shall choose among their number one as Secretary and Treasurer, who shall continue in office during the term for which said Commissioners are elected, unless sooner removed by said Commissioners; and they shall require and take from the Secretary and Treasurer a bond, in a penalty to be fixed by them, for the faithful discharge of his duty as said Secretary and Treasurer, the said bond to be furnished by a surety company authorized to do business in Maryland and the annual premium thereon shall be paid by the Commissioners out of the funds of the town.

SEC. 83C. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have full power to pass ordinances for the maintenance of good order in said town and thereby to suppress all disorderly conduct in said town of whatsoever nature and to prevent the running at large of all classes of live stock and to prevent any immoderate driving through the streets of the town, or on any public road running through said town, with automobile, motor cycle, bicycle, carriage, wagon or other vehicle, or on horse back, so as to endanger the lives, limbs or property of the citizens, or disturb the quiet enjoyment of the streets, roads and thoroughfares, whether the same be public or private, and to that end, by said ordinances, may impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violations of any ordinances, but no fine or penalty shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars nor shall any imprisonment in the House of Correction or County Jail be for more than one year; and in default of payment of any fine or costs of prosecution or in case of any forfeiture whatsoever, the offender shall be committed to the County Jail for a period not exceeding three months.

SEC. 83D. And be it enacted, That any Commissioner or Citizen of the town shall have power to make an immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person or persons who may be charged with riotous or disorderly conduct, or with driving or riding through the streets, roads and thoroughfares of the town
