

(a) "Maryland standard fancy grade" shall consist of apples of one variety, which are well grown specimens, hand-picked, properly packed, of good color for the variety, normal shape, free from dirt, diseases, insect and fungus injury, bruises and other defects except such as are necessarily caused in the operation of packing; or apples of one variety which are not more than five per centum below the foregoing specifications on a combination of all defects or two per centum on any single defect.

(b) "Maryland standard A Grade" shall consist of apples of one variety which are well grown specimens, hand-picked, properly packed, normal shape, practically free from dirt, diseases, insect and fungus injury, bruises and other defects except such as are necessarily caused in the operation of packing; or apples of one variety which are not more than ten per centum below the foregoing specifications on a combination of all defects or five per centum on any single defect. No apples in this grade shall show less than thirty-three and one-third per centum of good color for the variety.

(c) "Maryland standard B grade" shall consist of apples of one variety which are well matured, hand-picked, properly packed, practically normal shape, practically free from dirt, disease, insect and fungus injury; or apples of one variety which are not more than fifteen per centum below the foregoing specifications on a combination of all defects or five per centum on any single defect.

(d) "Cull grade" shall consist of apples not conforming to the foregoing specifications of grade, and shall be classed as culls and shall be so branded. This grade shall be used to include those apples rejected as not meeting the specifications of the foregoing "Fancy," "A" and "B" grades. The minimum size of the fruit and the grade of the fruit in the package shall be branded upon it as hereinafter specified and in addition to the other marks hereinafter required.

(e) "Orchard run" class shall consist of all apples grown in the orchard irrespective of grade or quality. It shall be unlawful for any person to cull or sort from a lot of apples any of the larger sizes or better grades or qualities thereof, and then pack, brand, sell or ship the remaining fruit as "Orchard run." The minimum size of the fruit and the class of the fruit in the package shall also be branded upon it as hereinafter specified and in addition to the other marks hereinafter specified.
