

County, any land, tenements and hereditaments for the purpose of improving the conditions of the poor of said county.

SEC. 9. They shall make out and render to the County Commissioners, at their first meeting in October in 1916, and every six months thereafter, semi-annual reports, embracing a statement of their accounts and expenditures, with necessary vouchers of preceding half-year; and the said Commissioners shall have the power to reject such reports until the same shall have been made in a plain and business-like manner; and upon failure of said trustees to make correct and satisfactory reports, the said County Commissioners are authorized and empowered to dismiss any or all trustees and to fill such vacancies.

SEC. 10. Meetings of the trustees shall be held at the County Home monthly or oftener, but nothing in this Act shall prevent their holding other meetings at other places if, in their judgment, it seems advisable.

SEC. 11. They shall appoint an overseer at such salary and for such term as they may deem proper.

SEC. 14. The trustees, or a majority of them, shall make such rules and by-laws as they, or a majority of them shall think convenient and necessary for the direction, government and support of the County Home, and the employment of all poor persons that may be committed there.

SEC. 17. At the first meeting of the trustees held after qualification as such, they shall select from their number a chairman, a secretary and a treasurer to hold office for one year unless sooner discharged by the trustees.

SEC. 21. Any two trustees may, under their hands, in writing, appoint what poor shall be received into said County Home.

SEC. 22. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall levy as other moneys are levied, the sum of $4,000 for the support of the Anne Arundel County Home for the year beginning July 1, 1916, and they shall pay to the trustees of said County Home on the first day of August, $1,000 thereof, and on the first day of October, $1,000 thereof, and on the first day of February, $1,000 thereof, and on the first day of May the balance of $1,000, and each year thereafter they shall levy and pay to said trustees the sum of $3,000, payable in installments as above set forth for the support of the County Home and, in addition thereto,
