

the sum of $200 for each inmate in excess of fifteen that the Home has contained, upon the average, for the past year, up to a total of twenty inmates, and the sum of $150 for each additional inmate up to twenty-five inmates, and the sum of $125 for each additional inmate over and above twenty-five. The trustees shall render proper reports to the Commissioners of all their transactions and shall show their books and accounts to said Commissioners upon proper demand. At the end of each fiscal year the County Commissioners for Anne Arundel County may demand that all unexpended balances of money received from them, be turned into the County Treasurer and for failure so to do on the part of said trustees the County Commissioners may fine the said trustees or any one of them a sum not to exceed $50 each or dismiss from office all or any of said trustees or all of them, or both in the discretion of said Commissioners, such fine and dismissal from office to be accomplished as such fine and penalties are usually accomplished.

SEC. 27-A. The trustees shall receive as compensation for each and every meeting attended by them individually, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) but, irrespective of the number of meetings held they shall not receive a sum in excess of $25 in any one year; no commissions, traveling expenses or other moneys whatsoever shall be paid them from any moneys received from the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County; provided however, nothing in this section shall prevent the payment of a salary to the secretary or treasurer as such, not to exceed a total for both of more than one hundred dollars in any one year. No meals or other perquisites shall be furnished them, the cost of which is paid for out of moneys received from the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County.

SEC. . And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June, 1916.

Approved April 18th, 1916.
