

136. The Justices of the Peace for Harford County shall make a report and pay over at the end of each month all moneys or funds received by them for licenses as herein provided, to the Chief Game Warden of Harford County, whose appointment is hereinafter provided for in this Act, which moneys shall be expended by said Chief Game Warden as hereinafter provided for; and any Justice of the Peace failing to turn over the money received for the issuance of licenses at the end of each month, as provided in this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, together with the costs of prosecution for each and every offense.

137. The County Commissioners of Harford County shall on or before the first day of July, 1916, and every two years thereafter, appoint a Game Warden for Harford County, and who shall hold office for two years or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, whichever shall first occur. The person so appointed Chief Game Warden shall have been a resident and voted in said County for not less than two years next preceding his appointment. Said Game Warden so appointed shall receive a salary to be retained by him from moneys coming into his hands from the issuance of hunting licenses and the collection of fines for the violation of the fish and game laws of Harford County, of $600.00 and the necessary expenses of his office, including traveling expenses and attorney's fees, provided the receipts of said office equal that amount, and all money over and above said amounts shall be used in procuring, protecting, feeding and propagating game in Harford County.

138. The said Chief Game Warden of Harford County may be removed by the County Commissioners of Harford County, after it shall have been affirmatively made to appear upon written charges that said Chief Game Warden has neglected or improperly discharged the duties of his office; provided, however, that the Chief Game Warden shall in no instance be removed until he is given a hearing upon the written charges made against him; and provided further that either the Chief Game Warden or the party or parties preferring the said written charges shall have the right of appeal from the decision of the County Commissioners to the Circuit Court for Harford County, where said charges shall be tried de novo before a Court and Jury.
