

139. The said Chief Game Warden of Harford County appointed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section shall before entering upon the duties of his office take and subscribe before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County the oath or affirmation prescribed by the Sixth Section of the First Article of the Constitution of Maryland, and shall subscribe his name in the test book kept in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County, and the said Chief Game Warden shall before entering upon his duties as aforesaid, in addition to taking the foregoing oath, file a bond in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County in the penalty of Two Thousand Dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as Chief Game Warden of Harford County, which bond shall be approved by the said Clerk or one of the Judges of the Circuit Court for Harford County.

140. It shall be the duty of the Chief Game Warden of Harford County to have general charge, supervision and control of and over all game wardens appointed for Harford County under this or any other Act; to prosecute all persons or bodies corporate violating any of the game or fish laws of this State in force in Harford County, and to obtain information as to all violations of said game and fish laws; to have printed the blank forms set forth in this Act for the licenses and deliver the same to the several Justices of the Peace of the County; and it shall also be his duty to receive and safely keep all moneys paid over to him by the several Justices of the Peace of Harford County, or by or from any other person or source by virtue of and through his said office of Chief Game Warden of Harford County; and he shall report by itemized sworn account at least once a year to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County, all receipts and disbursements made by him under the provisions of this Act.

141. The Chief Game Warden of Harford County shall, after the recording of the oath or affirmation to be by him so taken, in Harford County be a conservator of the peace, and shall also have and exercise all the power and authority had, given to and exercised by the deputy game wardens to be appointed as provided for in this Act.

142. Whenever the Chief Game Warden of Harford County appointed as aforesaid, shall consider that it is necessary that he should have deputy game wardens appointed to assist him in more effectively enforcing the game and fish laws of
