

ance of said surplus revenue remaining in his hands over and above his proper costs and expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of said Act.

And the Comptroller shall transmit a copy of said reports and accounts, as the same shall be filed with him as aforesaid, to the Clerk of the County Commissioners of Harford County, to be filed in the office of said Commissioners.

188. Any retiring Clerk who shall not have completed during his term of office the work and other things authorized to be done under the provisions of said Act shall, within six (6) months after the election and qualification of his successor in office, render him, under oath, an account of the surplus revenues of the office that have come into his hands during his term or terms of office applicable under the terms of said Act to the payment of the costs and expenses of carrying out its provisions, with an itemized statement of whatever expenditures he may have made out of the same under the authority of said Act, and shall thereupon pay over to his successor in office any balance of said surplus revenues remaining over and above said expenditures, to be used by him in completing the work and other things authorized to be done by said Act.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

189. From and after the general election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1907, the Board of County Commissioners of Harford County shall consist of five members.

190. There shall be elected at the general election of 1907 three County Commissioners, who shall hold office for two years and until their successors are elected and have qualified, and there shall be elected at the general election of 1909 four County Commissioners, who shall hold office for two years and until their successors are elected and have qualified, and at the general election of 1911 there shall be elected five County Commissioners, who shall hold office for two years and until their successors are elected and qualified, and thereafter five County Commissioners shall be elected at each general election, and the County Commissioners elected under the provisions of this Act shall be eligible for re-election, but those holding over under the Act of 1892, Chapter 157, shall be ineligible to succeed themselves.

191. The County Commissioners elected under the Act of 1892, Chapter 157, shall continue to hold office until the expi-