

the county commissioners in the name of the State of Maryland.

249. In every suit for the recovery of fines or of damages under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, the clerk to the county commissioners shall forward to the chemist, selected under the provisions of section 242 for analysis, the numbered sample of commercial fertilizer or bone dust deposited with the said clerk by the party bringing suit; and the sworn report of the analysis of such commercial fertilizer or bone dust by the said chemist shall be received as evidence in the case.

FISH.

250. If any person using a fishery on the west side of the Susquehanna River shall for the space of ten days after the expiration of the fishing season, neglect to remove any putrefying pickle from the fishing shore, and cleanse the vessels used in curing fish, or suffer quantities of fish to remain and putrefy on the fishing shore, he shall forfeit the sum of five dollars, and shall immediately remove such putrid fish and pickle, and cleanse the vessel used in curing fish; and on refusal or neglect so to do for the space of five days thereafter, shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars; the said penalties to be recovered before a justice of the peace for said county, as small debts, the one-half to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners.

251. Fishing in the waters of Romney Creek, in Harford County, in any mode or manner whatsoever, is prohibited in the time intervening between the fifteenth day of October and the first day of the next succeeding February in each and every year; and it shall be unlawful for any person or persons at any time to catch any fish in the waters of said creek with any kind of net whatever; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent owners or renters of farms and lands bordering upon the waters of said creek and the owners and renters of farms adjoining said lands, which formerly bordered on said creek, but from which the shore rights thereof have heretofore been sold, from catching fish in the waters opposite their said lands for the use of their own families and employees, but they shall not make any unnecessary noise that will interfere with any person or persons having the right to shoot ducks or other wild fowl on the shores of said creek.

252. Each and every person violating any of the provisions of Section 251 shall be subject to arrest by any person
